

What will my journey through the FSRH Diploma look like?

Check you meet our FSRH Diploma (DFSRH) entry requirements.

Find a Faculty Registered Training Programme using our online map.

Type in your postcode or the location where you intend to train and contact a nearby trainer to check their availability and fees.

Once you have your FRT secured, you can apply for our DFSRH.

There is a fee which you will need to pay upfront when applying. You will also need to provide evidence to support your entry requirements. If accepted you will have access to our FSRH Training Hub to start your DFSRH.

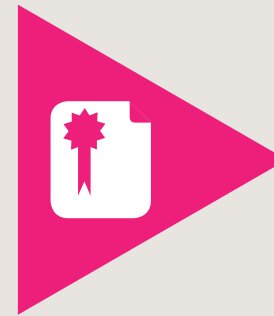

Complete the DFSRH learning and assessments within a maximum of two years.

Your FRT will support you in completing your DFSRH assessments. Other assessments are self-directed and at your own pace.

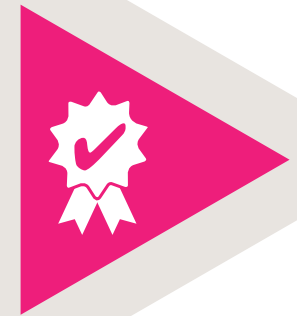

Undertake the evaluation as part of the completion of your DFSRH.

We will use this feedback to continually improve the experience of future DFSRH candidates.

Become a FSRH Diplomat member.

On completion of the qualification you will join as a Diplomat member to receive your DFSRH certificate and use the DFSRH post-nominals. You'll also gain continued access to our FSRH Training Hub and a range of membership resources.

Recertify your DFSRH every five years.

As a Diplomat member, you benefit from free recertification of your qualification. This enables you to demonstrate your ongoing development and that DFSRH learning outcomes have been maintained.
